DAYTONA WILL HAVE RACES DECLARES PRESIDENT BOND.

WILL JACKSONVILLE HAVE A BETTER MEET.
MORE CAN BE RAISED
LOCAL ASSOCIATION WILL MEET ON DAYTONA
BEACH AS PLANNED.

President R. M. Bond of the Florida East Coast Automobile association declares the beach racing meet for spring is not lost to Daytona, and that the races will be held here at Jacksonville has a meet of its own. If the necessary funds to finance the meet can be raised. He says that $100,000 more will assure the meet and that it will be held after the meet in Jacksonville, about the second week in April.

Not discouraged by the fact that a motion has been given to Jacksonville for a meet to be held the dates of which Daytona has been holding, the president of the local automobile association here will go west with the arrangements for a meet and the meet will be a better one than the one held at Jacksonville.

Much encouragement has been given Mr. Bond and the committee here have been soliciting the funds to finance the meet by the regular letters sent out the last part of last week. There are many people willing to subscribe to the race meet whom the members of the committee have been unable to see personally and these people are responding to the letters calling for further subscriptions.

At Jacksonville insists on holding the meet the last week in March the meet on Daytona beach will be held following the one at the metropolis. All of the cars entered in the races at Jacksonville will be brought here and others will come to Daytona because of the assurance that the beach here will be in good condition. The manufacturers have expressed a fear to enter cars at Jacksonville because of the condition of the beach, although they are willing to enter their cars for races at Daytona.

By some the belief is held that the last part of April will be a better time to hold the races because it will hold people longer in Daytona and bring many others here after the regular season is practically closed. The people who have subscribed to the fund to finance a race meet here have done so with the understanding that the meet will be held, and President Bond is determined to bring the meet here for the advertising it will give Daytona and this section of the state.

Still optimistic the committees will continue their efforts to boost the amount of the subscriptions sufficiently high to insure a better meet than the one in Jacksonville, and with the determination to bring more and better cars here than are entered at the Jacksonville races. If any such records are established during the meet at Jacksonville they will be immediately broken in the races at Daytona, and this city will still remain the center of the racing season.

take the opportunity for advertising itself in every part of the world. Persons who have not already subscribed to the race meet fund are requested to do so at once, so that applications for a section for a later date can be made at once.

PROGRESS TOWARD A SETTLEMENT. CIGARMANERS RESUME WORK IN THE TAMPA FACTORIES.

NEARLY 300 APPLIED FOR WORK
DURING THE PAST WEEK, BUT MANY ARE OBSTINATE AND WILL STAY OUT.

TAMPA, Jan. 9.—Progress made while still far from the normal in amount, the growing each week, the gains recently made being quite considerable. It is now almost a certainty that within a few weeks' time the factories will be in full operation. When the strike was declared last August no man believed it would be so long drawn out. The manufacturers met the situation with determination to fight to the last ditch. Their plans have been carried through without a hitch and they are winning out in splendid style.

Cigar shipments from this city, toward a settlement of the cigarmakers' strike during the past week has been most marked. Since last week Monday morning nearly 300 men have voluntarily applied for work and been placed at cigarmakers' benches in the factories against which the strike is still being waged by the cigarmakers' union. The gain made during the past week is the largest made during any one week since the trouble began. Also it has been made without the bringing in of a single man from the outside.

PRIMARIES COME TOMORROW TO NOMINATE A CANDIDATE.

THREE MEN IN RACE FOR NOMINATION TO SUCCEED TALLAFERRO IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

Tomorrow there will be held in most of the counties of Florida a democratic primary to determine who will be the nominees for United States senator to succeed the present incumbent, James P. Tallafarro. N. B. Broward was nominated in the primary of last June but died shortly after receiving the nomination.

The three candidates now before the people are W. A. Blount, N. P. Bryan and J. N. C. Stockton.

The state and county executive committees having no funds with which to conduct the primary, the inspectors and clerks must be volunteers. In this county Sheriff E. L. Smith delivered the ballot boxes to the various precincts without charge. The polls will open at eight o'clock tomorrow and close at sundown. All persons who were qualified to vote in the primary of last June are qualified to vote tomorrow.

In Daytona the polling place will, as usual, be at the City Hall.

The Bank That Keeps Your Books.

If you have a checking account, the bank does your bookkeeping free of charge and renders you a statement of your receipts and expenditures whenever you ask for it.

Your cancelled checks are receipts for the bills you have paid. You need never pay a bill twice if you pay by check. The check is positive proof that you paid the money.

You cannot be robbed if you carry a check book instead of the actual money. You cannot lose your money by carelessness or fire if you keep it in the bank and pay by check.

If you have a check book in your pocket you always have the "right change," for you can make out a check for any odd amount.

If you pay by check people will see that you have a bank account and your credit will be greatly improved.

If you have a checking account at the bank, you will be given special consideration should you wish to borrow money.

LETTER WRITTEN IN NORTH

EPISTLE SAYS COOK WENT AS FAR NORTH AS PEARY, BUT THAT NEITHER REACHED THE OBJECTIVE POINT.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 9.—A letter has been received here from the Arctic Circle, written by Mene, an Eskimo who was with Peary on his two dashes to the pole. The letter declares that neither Peary nor Cook reached the pole, but that Cook went as far as anybody.

Mene declares Cook is loved by all the Eskimos, while Peary is hated because of his cruelty.

RUN OVER BY AUTO; BRUISED.

SEABREEZE WOMAN INJURED; WHEELS PASS OVER LIMBS.

MRS. LEE, RIDING BICYCLE, STRUCK BY CAR AT CORNER OF BATH STREET AND SEA-BREEZE AVENUE.

Knocked down and run over by an automobile as it rounded the corner of Bath street and Seabreeze avenue in Seabreeze Sunday afternoon Mrs. Lee, of Indiana, a winter resident at Seabreeze, received some severe bruises about the lower limbs, which are keeping her confined to her home on Seabreeze avenue.

Mrs. Lee and a woman companion are said to have been going east on Seabreeze avenue on bicycles when P. T. Stevens, a guest at The Howard, coming south on Bath street, turned the corner into the avenue. One woman turned to the right, while Mrs. Lee is said to have turned to the left. Mr. Stevens is said to have attempted to turn the automobile between the two bicycle riders, with the result that Mrs. Lee was knocked to the pavement, the rear wheel of the auto passing over her lower limbs. The bicycle frame is said to have saved her more serious injuries.

She was immediately taken to her home by Mr. Stevens in his car and a physician called. Her injuries are not considered dangerous.

BARNEY OLDFIELD BREAKS
LOS ANGELES TRACK RECORD
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 9.—At the second outlaw meeting at Ascot Park, Barney Oldfield, driving his "Blitzen Benz," broke the Pacific coast one-mile track record, covering the distance in :51 1-5, James J. Jeffries acting as Oldfield's mechanic.

Oldfield sails with his manager, William Pickens, for Australia next week. He will return in May or June and says he will conduct outlaw meets all over the country.

Mrs. George Wray went over to Lake Helen Saturday afternoon for a week's visit with Mrs. George Bartholomew.

MORGAN STOPS THE PANIC; ALL DEPOSITORS ARE PAID.

AFTERMATH OF SKYROCKET FINANCIAL METHODS OF JOSEPH ROBIN, BUT MONEY IS REDEEMED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Runs were made on three banks in New York today as an aftermath to the sky-rocket financial methods of Joseph Robin, but the prompt payment of depositors at the Twelfth Ward and Nineteenth Ward banks and the Madison Trust company averted any sign of a panic.

All banks are supported by J. P. Morgan and his financial associates and as soon as this became known the runs ended. Nearly all depositors who had withdrawn their money replaced it on deposit.

Stocks Are Firm—
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The influence of John Pierpont Morgan triumphed over pessimism in stocks today, due to bank failures and the trading was firm. Advances were made in several of the leading stocks, and there was a brisk demand for the Standard issues.

CAMPAIGNING COSTS MONEY; EXPENSE ACCOUNTS FILED.

SECRETARY OF STATE HAS DOCUMENTS WHICH SHOW MONEY SPENT BY THE THREE CANDIDATES.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 9.—The three candidates for United States senator to be voted for in Tuesday's democratic primary have filed with the secretary of state their campaign expense account up until 10 days before the primary, as required by law.

The law requires each of the candidates to file an additional expense account 10 days after the primary.

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with Persian draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptaceous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; when they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficiency and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you. The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 25 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $44,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the "high rolling" pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominant products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to Delcun Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN, FLA.

LAKE HELEN
Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY
The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

Fifty Years Ago Today. Jan. 9.

Mississippi withdrew from the Union. The steamer Star of the West, flying the United States flag and conveying relief to Fort Sumter, was fired upon at the entrance to Charleston harbor by South Carolina batteries on Morris Island.

The New York Herald proved its average circulation to be 84,000 daily, and the New York Sun proved its own to be 61,000. The Sun claimed that these two papers held the world's record for circulation. (The Herald now claims 511,900 as its high water mark.)

The old world's hesitatin'—Don't know which way to go. Her appetite's just hung between The rosebud and the snow.

Oh, come closer, my honey! Let's give her the right boost. If we all push together She'll find the sunshine roost. —St. Paul Dispatch.

She—If we were only as lucky as the Sternfells!

He—What especial luck have they had?

She—Her husband has been bitten by a mad dog, and now she can go with him to the Pasteur Institute in Paris!—Heltere Welt.

Playful little Earlie rang the deacon's bell.

When the door was opened, on the deacon fell.

Twenty soft tomatoes—spoiled his Sunday suit!

Wasn't Earlie cute?

Playful little Earlie tackled the wrong place.

Some one who was waiting caught him face to face.

Earlie went home howling. Oh, the welts he had!

Wasn't it too bad? —Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Manager—Can you make quick changes and double in a few parts?

The Actor—Can I! Say, you know the scene in "Love and Lobsters," where the hero and the villain are fighting and a friend rushes in and separates 'em? Well, I played all three parts one night when the other two fellows were ill.—Toledo Blade.

Of all the bores about the worst is he who tells his troubles first.

Who will insist on being heard, And you cannot get in a word;

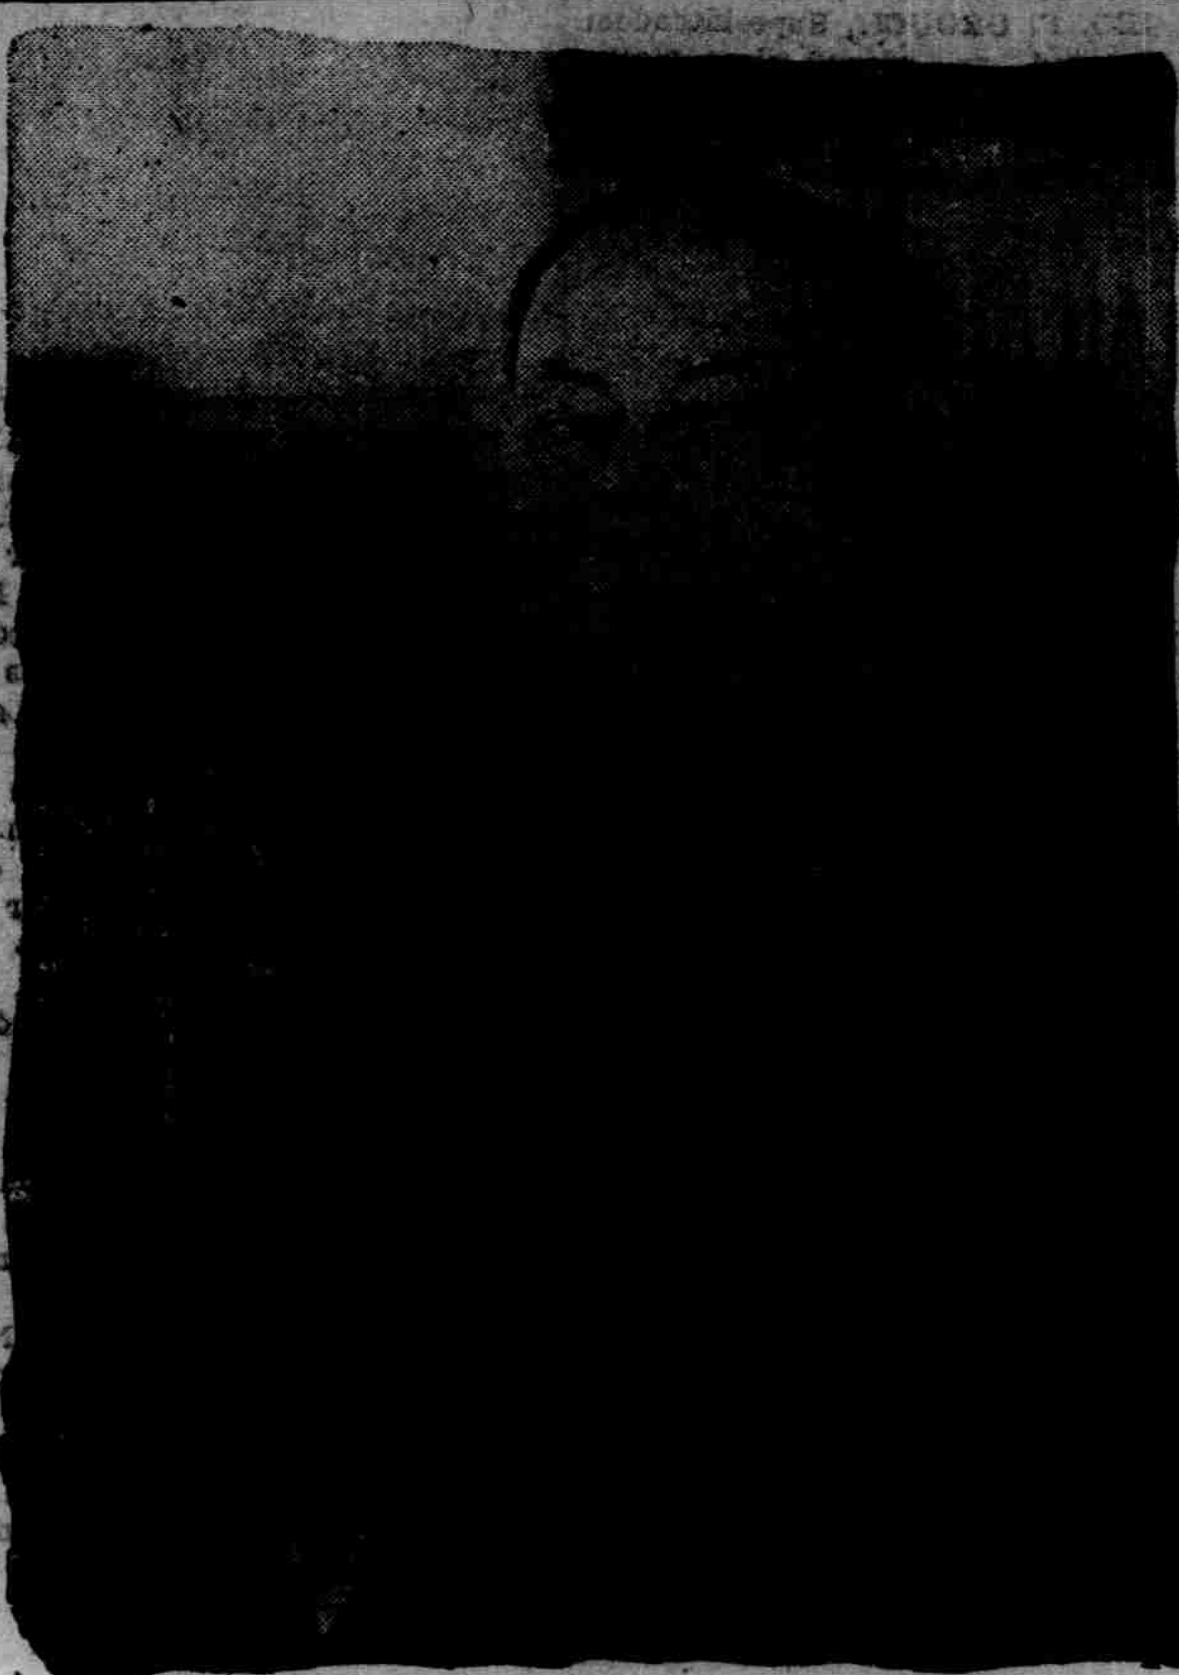

Whose tale of woes for hours endures, While you are aching to tell yours;

Who talks and talks about himself And puts you meanwhile on the shelf,

Nor thinks of giving way to you, Although you have some troubles too.

Of all the bores he heads the list. Confound the blooming egotist! —Somerville Journal.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley Gets Gold Medal and Will Get a Wife Soon

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the government's pure food expert, recently spoke before the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia on the "Application of Chemistry to Public Welfare." He explained the great good that the bureau of chemistry, of which he is chief, has done and predicted that the same principles would soon be extended so that all sorts of business fraud would be prohibited. He correctly argues that the man who buys silk wants to get silk and that when he asks for pure wool he should get pure wool, and he believes that it is the government's duty to see that he is not swindled. Dr. Wiley was signally honored by the Franklin Institute, which presented to him the Elliott Cresson medal, the highest tribute within the gift of the institute. Dr. Wiley's engagement to Miss Anna C. Kelton of Washington has recently been announced, so it will be seen that honors are coming the pure food expert's way. Dr. Wiley was recently asked how to tell a bad egg. "If I had anything to tell a bad egg," he replied, "I would break it gently." This shows that Dr. Wiley has a sense of humor. He added seriously that there was no test for a fresh egg except the sense of smell or of taste, and this can't be exercised until the shell of the egg is shattered.

Generally Magnified. "Mamma, what's 'a peck o' trouble?" "About a thimbleful, my dear child."—Judge.

ENTRANCE TO LAKE WORTH; DREDGE WORK COMPLETED.

REMOVAL OF SANDBAR GIVES CHANNEL 100 FEET WIDE FROM MOUTH OF CANAL INTO THE LAKE.

WEST PALM BEACH, Jan. 9.—The work of opening the mouth of the East Canal where it enters the head of Lake Worth, has been completed by the dredge Nimkee, under the charge of Capt. R. M. Smith. The work took 11 days and was finished Saturday morning. The big suction dredge that was employed to remove the sandbar at the mouth of the canal is now going north through the canal to Jupiter, and will leave a good deep water channel through the canal.

There is now a channel 100 feet wide and seven feet in depth at the mouth of the canal. It was necessary to cut this channel for a distance of 1,000 feet in order to remove the sandbar that had to be made, and make it possible for boats to enter the lake from the canal, or vice versa.

The sandbar has been an obstruction to navigation since it was formed by the big storm in October, and its removal will permit a large number of yachts and other craft to enter Lake Worth.

VAN NUYS CENTER OF SOCIAL LIFE.

MOST EXCLUSIVE HOSTELRY IN STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

DISTINCTION ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Social life of Los Angeles—and of Southern California, centers in the handsome drawing room of the Van Nuys Hotel, the Southland's most exclusive hostelry. The Van Nuys is always approachable, and enjoyable. One who has ever been a guest there leaves and returns to find something new, an embellishment here, a convenience there or his favorite apartment transformed with new furnishings and other attractions. The "personal interest" is always a live in the hotel. Distinguished travelers, diplomats, scientific men of note and accomplishment, well-known men of financial and industrial power partake of its hospitality and frequent its corridors.

Women conspicuous in art endeavor and achievements and others of social authority emphasize and tone the more refined phrases of life in the Van Nuys. It is a resort of fashion and distinction and adequately meets the requirements and demands of such patronage. Society finds it a desirable medium for the function and for the provision it makes for social display.

The Van Nuys Hotel for a decade past has been known universally as a gathering place for prominent people, where one can enjoy all of the diversions of metropolitan life in a thriving city, while basking under sunny skies in a semitropical climate. At the same time the accommodations provided at the Van Nuys affords all the opportunity desired for a secluded and restive haven and peaceful quietude.

But one change of management in this caravansary has been effected since its establishment, but this has by no means affected its individual characteristics. The hotel became the property of the E. L. Potter company about two years ago and since its acquisition of the Van Nuys the company has inaugurated many novel changes which have given added impetus to its rapidly growing popularity among the cultured and refined traveling public.

To take over a hotel that has for years enjoyed among travelers the reputation of being an almost perfect palace, a hotel that at most times has enjoyed a business that few such places are really able to handle, to come into a business community as total strangers, to refurbish, redecorate and add every known convenience that humanity can devise, without the slightest inconvenience to its numerous patrons and at the same time increase the business of the establishment almost to the maximum, is exactly what the E. L. Potter company, who now own the Hotel Van Nuys and who also own the Hotel Carendon, at Seabreeze, Florida, has done in a year or so under the management of C. H. Knappe.

Travelers about to enter Los Angeles are continually asking the question, "Is the Van Nuys the same refined, quiet, comfortable hotel of the past?" and the answer invariably received from those who know and have had the pleasure of dining or staying at the Van Nuys under the new management is always one of praise and approval and one all agree that under the new conditions there is a distinct air of refinement found in but few hotels and that the cuisine and service ("the one thing that made the old Van Nuys celebrated") have been perfect to a point that one would hardly think possible.

The Van Nuys as to accessibility and convenience is the most superbly situated hotel in Los Angeles. It is within a few minutes walk of the fashionable shopping district, within reach of all the theatres and railroad stations, directly on, or one or two blocks from, all electric car lines leading to the many beautiful towns in this region of orange groves and vineyards and the always interesting old missions.

The cafe of the Van Nuys has for years been famous among connoisseurs. This has been refinished in white and gold. The place is really luxurious, yet the luxury is so subdued and unobtrusive that you feel rather than notice the grandeur.

The Van Nuys is of dignified and excellent construction, affording the best possible protection against fire and noise and offers every convenience and every comfort and all the luxuries demanded by the most exacting.

The management of the Van Nuys directs the elaboration of social events in exquisite taste. The hotel is now the headquarters of army and navy men and prominent officials in the service of the United States and other governments, who happen to be here sojourning or in official capacities. The Van Nuys while not modeled in its management after any hotel in this country, ranks in its appointments, facilities and decoration with the most exclusive hotels of its class in New York and other large cities.

The Van Nuys makes special provisions in suites of elegant apartments for families; and bachelor life in the hotel is the realization of the wishes and dreams of epicures and bon-vivants. Since the present management took possession of the hotel many of the suites have been completely refurnished, all rooms connected with telephone service, and general rehabilitations perfected making it in every respect a thoroughly modern hotel.

In few places is there such a diversity of types as one sees on the thoroughfares of Los Angeles. Along the streets in front of the Van Nuys pass men and women gathered from all the world's four corners, like a painting of the march of all the children of men. Kaki-clad prospectors, brightly attired Russian women, Chinese and Japanese, Mexicans with big sombreros and sometimes gaily clad Indians, all move among Americans native to every state in the Union.

HOTEL PONCE DE LEON OPEN; CEREMONY IS INTERESTING.

BIG HOSTELRY AT ST. AUGUSTINE WILL SERVE FIRST MEAL OF THE SEASON TONIGHT.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Jan. 9.—With the usual interesting ceremony the beautiful Hotel Ponce de Leon was opened for the winter season this afternoon and the first dinner of the season will be served tonight between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock.

The past week has been an active one for Manager Robert Murray and his force of help, but everything was in readiness for the opening this afternoon. Many of the furnishings have been replaced this season with new materials and much of the costly decorating has been retouched. Manager Murray has gathered about him a corps of especially efficient help this season and every indication now points to the most successful season in the history of the hostelry.

Excellent Hunting and Fishing
NEW SMYRNA, FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida. With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and overarched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River orange.

KENTUCKY CADETS IN A SPECIAL.

PASS THROUGH THE CITY ON WAY TO EAU GALLIE.

WHOLE CADET CORPS FROM KENTUCKY INSTITUTE AT LYNDON NOW OCCUPY THEIR WINTER QUARTERS.

A special train carrying the cadets from the Kentucky Military Institute at Lyndon, Ky., to Eau Gallie, Fla., passed through Daytona early Sunday morning over the Florida East Coast railroad. The cadets will remain in their winter quarters at Eau Gallie until the first of April, when two special trains will be used in transporting them back to the Blue Grass state.

This is the sixth annual tour of the institute to their Florida quarters on the beautiful Indian river 80 miles south of Daytona. The idea of moving an entire cadet corps to winter quarters is original with Col. C. W. Fowler and it has long since ceased to be an experiment. Handsome quarters have been fitted up at Eau Gallie and the cadets look forward each year with anticipation to their sojourn in Florida, where the time can be spent out of doors.

The special train left Lyndon Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock and came through by way of Chattanooga, Atlanta, Macon, Tifton and Jacksonville. The train arrived at Jacksonville about 2 o'clock Sunday morning and remained there only long enough for a change of engines and train crews, then proceeded south over the East Coast line at once. T. B. Walker, Florida passenger agent of the Louisville & Nashville railroad met the special train at Waycross, Ga., and accompanied it through to Eau Gallie.

ASKING FOR DAMAGES FROM GROCERY COMPANY. JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 9.—The trial of the case of John T. Hammond, president of the State Bank of New Smyrna, against the Consolidated Grocery company, was resumed in the United States court here today.

In a previous trial Hammond secured a substantial judgment, but it was reversed by the appellate court and the case remanded for trial. Hammond is suing for damages alleging that the Consolidated Grocery company boycotted all manufacturers who furnished him goods while he was in the wholesale grocery business at Orlando several years ago, with the result that he was finally unable to obtain goods and consequently was obliged to close out his business.

An election will be held at Titusville Feb. 14, to determine whether the city shall be bonded for the sum of $30,000 for the purpose of installing a system of waterworks.

OREGON TRAIL TO BE MARKED

Nebraskans to Erect Shaft on Site of Famous Lone Tree.

In the early days of Merrick county, Neb., during the fifties, there stood on the north bank of the Platte river south of what is now Central City a giant cottonwood tree. This tree was close to the old Oregon trail, and for miles up and down the river there was not another tree to be found. Under its spreading branches emigrant trains halted for rest to escape the heat of the day under its beneficent shade. It came to be known to the early travelers of the plain as the "lone tree."

Finally its branches withered and its trunk rotted and the old tree fell down, and the spot where it stood was almost forgotten. A short time ago a move was set on foot by the old settlers to set up some suitable mark on the spot where the lone tree stood, and the matter has been taken before the county board of supervisors. A marble shaft will be set up. On the shaft will be the simple words, "Here stood the old lone tree on the Oregon trail."

NEW CURE FOR CROSS EYES.

Loss of Eyeteeth Necessary to See Straight.

Cleveland dental experts announce that they have cured a girl of cross eyes by extracting her eyeteeth. They experimented with Carrie Mangino, a pupil at the Murray Hill school, who attended the school dental clinics, and by extracting four of her teeth, including the eyeteeth, removed the pressure upon the nerves of the girl's eyes to such an extent that now her eyes are straight.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

The Right Idea.
"It's remarkable how often a woman changes her mind."
"Oh, not always! There's one idea every woman gets that she never changes."
"What's that?"
"The idea that she's pretty!"

Motoring.
On sandy roads we used our power And sped at forty miles an hour. And was she frightened? Not a bit! That girl was just chuck full of grit! —Cleveland Leader.

Happier Days.
"My poor fellow, were you always a tramp?"
"No, mum. Once I wuz known as a man about town."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Top to Toe.
Oh, women such extremists are. Such follies they pursue. They want to wear a million hat And number not'ing shoe! —Boston Herald.

The Professor.
Doctor—He's quite a famous aviator, but isn't he homely?
Professor—Yes; he is the aeroplanist man I ever saw.—Chicago Tribune.

Try It.
Hard work's the only germicide— The only one, I guess— For what the scientists have called The germ of laziness. —Birmingham Age-Herald.

Young Hankinson (making a call)— You have had that parrot a long time, Miss Laura.
Miss Laura—Yes; we have had him several years.

Young Hankinson—Quite intelligent, is he not?

Miss Laura—Very. He can imitate almost anything.

Young Hankinson—They have a remarkably clever parrot over at the Casterlins', Miss Laura. It can imitate the sound of a kiss to perfection. Is that among the accomplishments of your feathered friend in the corner?

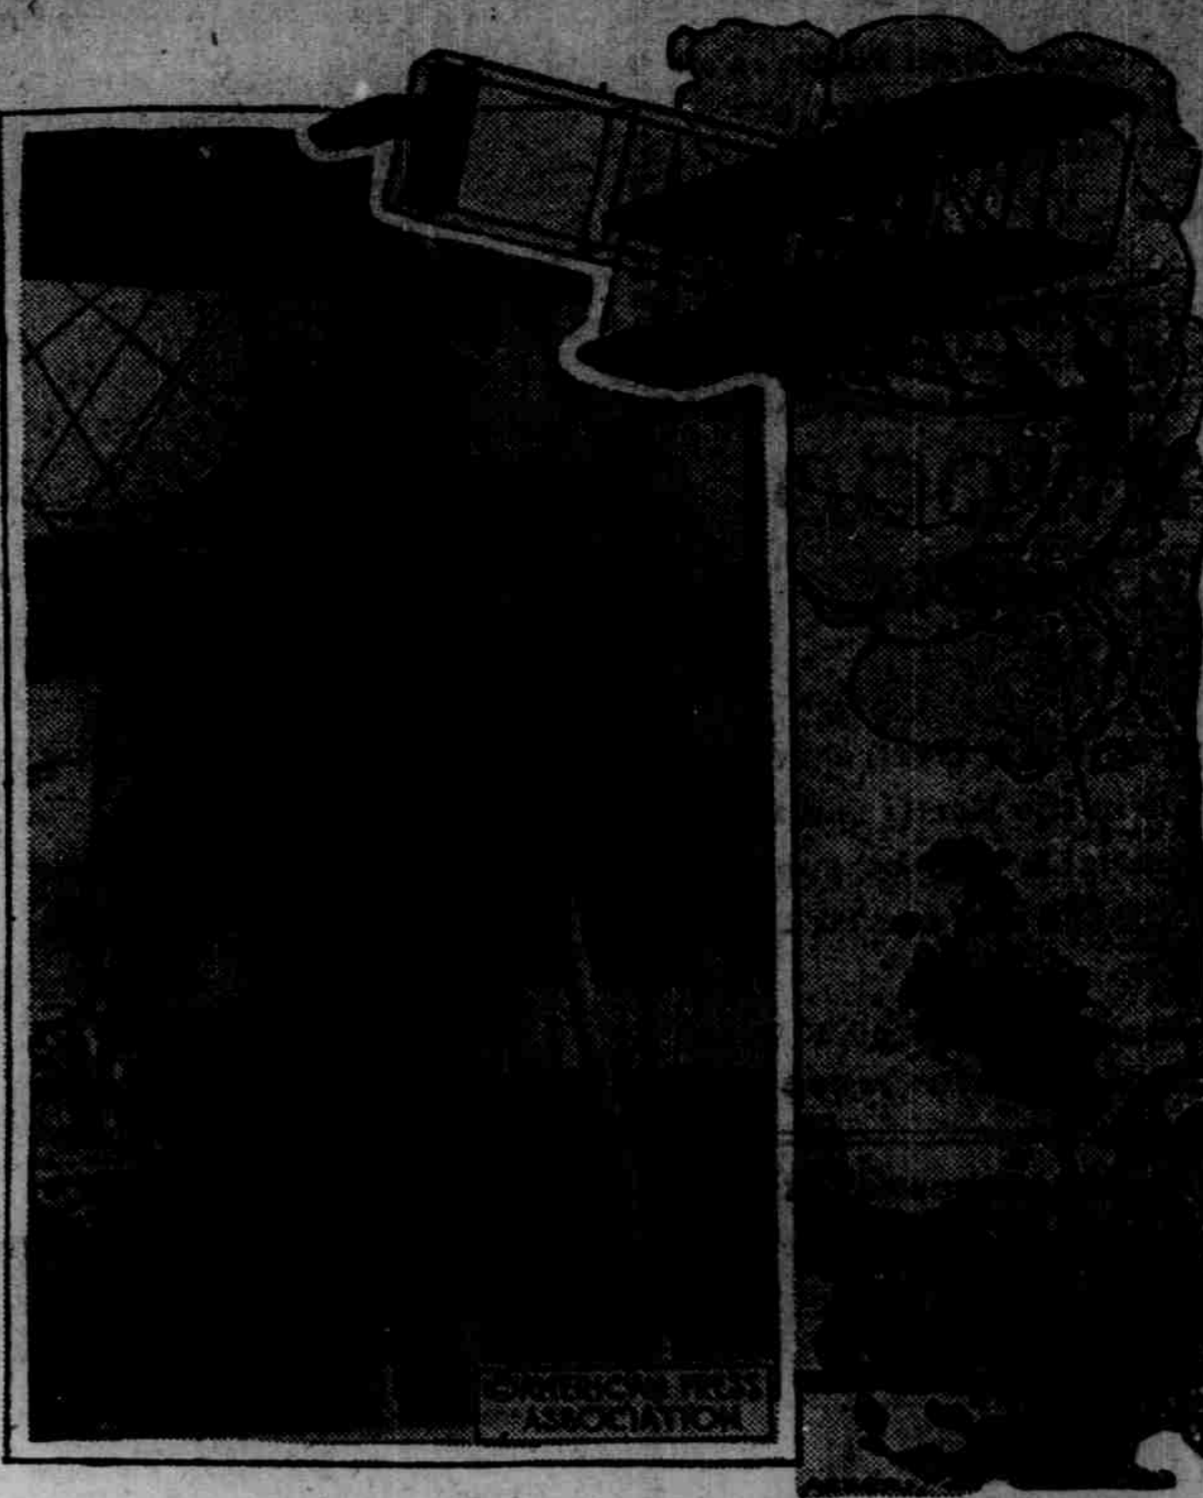

Miss Laura (Indignantly)—No, sir! He does not attempt an imitation of a sound he is not accustomed to hear. Mr. Hankinson.

The Parrot—Wait, George, dear, till I take this bird out of the room.— Brooklyn Eagle.

A Painful Inference.
A teacher was instructing a class of boys and had spent half an hour trying to drive into their heads the difference between man and the lower animals, but apparently with little success.

"Tommy," he said coaxingly to a little chap, "do you know the difference between, say, me and a pig or any other brute?"
"No," replied Tommy innocently, but another teacher standing by laughed.— London Answers.

Height Record Smashed Again When Hoxsey Went Up 11,474 Feet

Flying records do not last long these days, and it is not likely that Arch Hoxsey's great feat of ascending to a height of 11,474 feet at Los Angeles on Dec. 26 will long remain a world's record. Hoxsey went up when a wind was blowing at forty miles an hour, and several other aviators refused to attempt a flight. He at once began climbing and was soon lost to sight. For more than an hour the spectators on the aviation field saw nothing of the daring aviator. Then he again came into view and swooped down in great spirals until he landed near where he had started. He was so numb he could not move and could hardly speak. He said he had encountered frightful cold and he feared that his carburetor would freeze. The record for height has been broken several times during the present year, as the following figures show: Louis Paulhan, Jan. 12, Los Angeles, 4,146 feet; Walter Brookings, July 9, Atlantic City, 6,175 feet; J. Armstrong Drexel, Aug. 11, Lanark, Scotland, 6,750 feet; Drexel, Oct. 24, Belmont park, New York, 7,105 feet; Ralph Johnstone, Oct. Belmont park, 7,303 feet; Leon Morane Sept. 3, France, 8,472 feet; George Chavez, Sept. 10, France, 8,792 feet; Henri Wynnman, Oct. 2, Mourmelon, France, 9,186 feet; Johnstone, Oct. 31, Belmont park, 9,714 feet; Drexel, Nov. 23, Philadelphia, 9,970 feet (record not allowed); M. G. Legagneux, Dec. 9, Pau, France, 10,499 feet; Hoxsey, Dec. 26, Los Angeles, 11,474 feet.

McSwine's Gun.
McSwine's Gun is a prodigious cavity in the cliffs on the coast of County Donegal, Ireland, into which the tide rushes with such force as to produce a sound like the booming of a cannon, which can be heard twenty or thirty miles away.

Getting Out of Debt.
"What was it your husband wanted to see me about?" inquired Mrs. New-lwed's papa.
"I think he wanted to borrow a couple of hundred dollars from you," she said. "He's so anxious to get out of debt."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ormond is 18 miles north of Daytona, located on the west bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of great drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach. Many fine homes are maintained on either side of the river, most of them surrounded by sub-tropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

Ormond has many attractions—excellent automobilizing, good fishing, safe boating, and many pleasant drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and a lesser sister, the Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax, and the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

Besides the broad, smooth beach there are many drives for carriages and automobiles around Ormond—drives to and through groves of golden oranges; drives through tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of the most interesting of these plantations is at the headwaters of the Halifax and known as Moundgrove. It is one of the finest orange groves on the East Coast of Florida and is amid very pretty surroundings. Moundgrove is on the Daytona-Saint Augustine road.

DAYTONA DONE IN RHYME.

First Impressions, First-Class Suggestions, and a Summary of Daytona's Attractions.

At the banquet given by the ladies of the Palmetto Club, at the Ridgewood Hotel, Thursday evening, Jan. 8, in response to the toast of "Daytona," Marcus H. Rogers, who is an ex-newspaper publisher of Massachusetts, said he would follow the suggestion of Silas Wegg, and "drop into poetry," and he read the following rhymes, which were received with manifestations of lively appreciation, and requests for their publication, and the Daily News takes pleasure in giving them to its readers.

If there comes inspiration from heavenly graces, As portrayed in the welcome of radiant faces, There is ample excuse why I cannot refuse, To awaken my somewhat cantankerous muse: But I beg to explain, if the effort fall flat, The "mews" in that case, can be charged to the cat.

If humble confession is good for the soul, (As Dr. Cook tells us concerning the pole,) I will tell you the truth—since you will soon know it, There is not in this rhyme and trace of a poet. But I will admit—I'm inclined to be frank—I've a rhyming machine which starts with a crack, Like automobiles: and it's well to remark, Only at times, will it start from a spark.

When we came to Daytona, just four years ago, To escape the delusion of "beautiful snow," We had some impressions: but first, I'll relate, We had passed many winters elsewhere in the state; We had "hunted for climates," and since we began it, Had "sampled" the best, and circled the planet.

So, when we came here—bare mention suffices— With memories glowing of earth's paradises, Expectant to see the most beautiful town, That a friend, good and true, declared, "up and down," (His name thus revealed)—no longer we'd roam, In quest of an Eden, for a new winter home.

While visions in tumult were crowding the brain, And anticipation out-speeding the train, To see the rare beauties my friend had so painted, A lady with whom I am quite well acquainted— Whose sight-seing habit has never abated; For seeing grand structures which man has created; Who has seen famous tombs, and temples galore— Almost as soon as her feet touched the floor, Exclaimed, at first sight of the beauties foretold: "What is that building, all painted like gold?"

Adjusting my glasses—my sight is not keen— I dimly beheld, through a high wooden screen— (In mercy designed, perhaps, as a fender, For protection of eyes unaccustomed to splendor,) So gently revealing, for full admiration, The long yellow bars that is used for a station!

Within the twin buildings, devoted to freighting, Was a shiny buzz-wagon, our coming awaiting; And when it was out, with trifling delay, We first saw Daytona in that novel way.

No words can express the sense of delight, When of this famous street, we caught the first sight! First impressions we know, are often the strongest, And that one of Ridgewood, will endure the longest.

The over-arching branches of the primal trees, The mossy festoons being swayed by the breeze, The glimpses of flowers, but dimly revealed, —As charms are enhanced if partly concealed,— The long bowled way, as the vision could carry, Made the Avenue seem like the land of the fairy! Now mellowed by shade; now in sunlight it gleams, Like glimpses of heaven, one sees in his dreams!

These scenes of delight, thus quickly surveyed, The bounty of nature so grandly displayed, The walks and the homes, and the soft, balmy air,— All tokens of comfort, and freedom from care— With all the rare charm each turn will reveal, And which the new comer forever will feel, Like a dream of delight; and later will learn, To love, and lament, if he cannot return.

It was said by a poet of immortal renown, That God made the Country, and Man made the Town. But here in Daytona, by united command, Man and his Maker, together have planned, And the beautiful town, by this holy alliance, For many attractions, bids the whole world defiance! (Let me say, sotto voce, lest the truth should displease, It was man, and not God, who chopped down the tree!)

As people who live in closest proximity, To great exhibitions of nature's sublimity, Grow callous or blind, to some famous sight, Which fills new beholders, with awe or delight, So they who live here, in a region so blessed, May sometimes appear, it must be confessed, Not fully awake, to maintain or advance, The gifts which kind nature so lavishly grants.

What we need in Daytona, is more civic pride, More earnest endeavor, the best to provide. Instead of depending upon mayor or man, Let every one follow the resolute plan, To keep his own place both tidy and neat, Including the parkage, clear into the street. If a store on a corner, is clean on its face, Why allow the rear lot, to become a disgrace?

Can you think of a lady, expecting a call, Allowing waste paper to litter the hall? Yet the street is the "hall" to the visiting guest, And by its appearance, he will be impressed. And the common excuse, for such scars on beauty— "Those blasted officials don't do their duty," Never is made, it is worthy of mention, By any whose places require no attention.

Of all the good things in this good world so wide, The two most abundant, and gladly supplied, Both of high value, and both without price— The first is salvation, and the other, advice.

The first, though it's free, it is commonly thought, None of us have quite as much as we ought; But as for advice, it's a real human pleasure, To give all we can—and heap up the measure. (The only exceptions among the earth's dwellers, Are lawyers and doctors and fake fortune tellers.)

My advice to Daytona, may briefly be stated, To make the town spotless, as here advocated: It will add to its worth, and increase its fame, If "Spotless Daytona," is our effort and aim. Keep the name of the town, so the stranger will feel, If he comes to Daytona, he will have "a square deal." For of all silly things, the lowest and poorest, is a purpose, or spirit, of "soaking the tourist."

Unjust overcharges, are but curses unloosed, And which, like the chickens, will come home to roost. With a town unapproached for its natural beauty, The strongest demand of high civic duty, Is first, to deserve, and firmly maintain, A record for honor, untarnished by stain.

As a building is known, if it carries a steeple, So a town is best known, by survey of its people. For all the attractions Daytona can boast— Its trees and its streets, its River and coast— For all of the region is compassed in claim— Will never so justly establish its fame, As the high class of people who congregate here, For permanent homes, or to live half the year.

I can give City Island but very slight mention, Although it deserves sincerest attention, Because in the future that Island will stand, When wisely developed, and properly planned. A gem to be proud of: with walks and bowers; With trees, and seats, and nooks and bowers; And future demand, perhaps, may arise, To greatly increase the Island in size. And the Palmetto Club will win high renown, For taking the lead in this work for the town.

An old superstition prevailing in Rome, If ever a visitor departing for home, Throws a coin in a fountain, the fates are conjured, And his certain return is thereby insured. And here in Daytona, is a magical spell, That's equally potent and nothing can quell: If one casts a shadow, in place of a coin, Near the "Trinity Palm," where the Avenues join, Forever the hope within him will burn, That nothing can quench but a yearly return.

This mystical force has a wonderful sway; For people have gone disdainful away, Strongly declaring no intent or desire, To revisit the place which all most admire; But the mystical Palm their shadow had caught, And made them return, like a miracle wrought.

There's some magic spell, we all will agree— It may be Daytona, or it may be the Tree!

Where Nature has been such a bountiful giver; The Town usurped, the Sea and the River, In mingled perfection of beauty designed; Where climate and health, and comfort combined, With the finest of fruits, and beautiful flowers; Where the Avenues seem like fairy-land bowers; With churches, and homes, and schools of high grade, Unaffected refinement, and culture displayed;

With this worthy Club, as leader and teacher, In all social life, a factor and feature; Where leisure life finds sufficient employment In the various ways of daily enjoyment; Escaping the stings of the North's winter cold, Away from the roar of the commerce of gold—

Who can come here, and not be impressed, We are really forestaying the land of the blest? And Daytona may claim—and the claim's not amiss: "If there's a heaven on earth, it is this, it is this!"

Great Horace, the poet, tells in earth's early ages,

That great chieftains lived, and many wise sages; Who founded great cities, but vain was their pride, For, HAVING NO POETS, their story has died.

So, fearing this Feast would go unrecorded, And the work of the Club be left unrewarded, No poets appearing—is sufficient excuse, For this sort of jingle I here introduce. Just like the new music, which now comes in rolls, This medley, I know, will be punched full of holes! —But now my machine will stop with a jerk, For the gas tank is empty, and the sparker won't work!

The following is a list of the members of the Palmetto club and their guests who attended the banquet at the Ridgewood Hotel last Thursday evening:

A Giant English Oak.
Winifarth oak, according to reliable testimony, was 700 years old at the time of the conquest. William surveyed it closely before making his famous remark, "Could I live to be but one-fourth the age of this tree the world would be mine."

Sumptuary Laws.
Sumptuary laws are laws, now generally obsolete, enacted in the supposed interest of public morals to restrain extravagance in private expenditure, especially in matters of food, dress and amusements. They abounded in ancient Greece and Rome and found great favor in the legislation of England from the time of Edward II.
(1307-1327) to that of the reformation (1517). They existed in France as early as the time of Charlemagne (768-814) and continued to be enacted as late as the seventeenth century, but in no other country do they appear to have been enforced to any great extent. Sumptuary laws were repealed in England in 1856.

MRS ISABELLA WILLIAMS, FOR MANY YEARS A RESIDENT OF DAYTONA, DIED SUNDAY EVEN-ING.

Mrs. Isabella Williams, widow of George Williams, died at her home on West Volusia avenue Sunday evening, following an attack of paralysis several days earlier. Mrs. Williams was 68 years of age, today being the anniversary of her birth, and had been a resident of Daytona for the past 25 years or more, coming to this country from the north of England, where she was born, with her children to join her husband, who had preceded her to Florida in about 1875.

Mr. Williams brought property and built a home on West Volusia avenue where Mrs. Williams has continued to reside since his death, twelve years ago, having for companionship her grandchildren, George and Sarah Williams, children of her son, John W. Williams, of Seabreeze.

Mrs. Williams has been a frail woman for many years, but a cheerful spirit and strong will have helped to lengthen her span of life beyond that of many more robust people.

Though of a retiring disposition
she was of strong character, well read and interested in the world's affairs. She is well known to all of the older residents of Daytona, forming one of the links in the chain of early settlers.

Mrs. Williams is survived by two sons, John W. Williams, of Seabreeze and Thomas H. Williams, of Chicago, Ill., and one daughter, Mrs. J.
H. Fromberger, of Jensen, who is now in this city, and several grandchildren.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 3:00 from the Bingham & Maley undertaking parlors, Rev. A.
L. Abercrombie officiating, and the interment was made beside her husband in the family lot in Pinewood cemetery.

Gagging the Orator.

The Swiss understood the art of public dinners. In the eyes of some persons there is, however, one drawback
—the after dinner speeches are inter-minably long. In bygone days the people of Berne seem to have awakened to a sense of the infliction of long after dinner speeches, and they hit upon a plan, which is observed to this day, for the purpose of cutting orators short when they become too long. A man wearing a bear's skin stands near the speaker, and if the latter becomes prosy and wandering and drawn out in his remarks then the bear advances very gravely and just lays its claws upon the orator's mouth.
This method has never failed so far.

MEDICINE HAT IN KIPLING'S FAVOR

Don't Change Name Known the World Over, He Pleads.

GOOD AS YANKEE TITLES.

Moreover, "It's the Only Place That Can Freeze Out the United States," and Westerners Should Glory in Possession of Cognomen Rich With Indian Tradition, He Asserts.

Rudyard Kipling has written a characteristic letter to the citizens of Medicine Hat on being informed that the city contemplated changing its name.
He assumes that the reasons actuating
the citizens are that the name Medicine Hat has become a stock joke among the newspapers as "the place where the weather comes from."

A resident wrote to Mr. Kipling telling him of the proposed change and setting forth that the name was a translation of the old Cree name of the place and rich in Indian tradition.

Mr. Kipling in his reply told the citizens to hold joyously and proudly to the present name of the town, which, he declares, "has all hell for a base," and go forth as the only city officially recognized as capable of freezing out the United States. He thinks Medicine Hat can well afford to bear such a name when he remembers a few places in the United States, such as Schenectady, Tonawanda, Cohoes, Poughkeepsie, Podunk, Schoharie, Potomac and Oneonta.

People That Make Cities.

Mr. Kipling also wrote:
But it is people and not prospectuses that make cities, and time has sanctified the queer syllables with memories and association for millions of our fellow creatures. Once on a time these places were young and new and in process of making themselves.

That is to say, they were ancestors with a duty to posterity, which duty they fulfilled in handing on their names intact,
and Medicine Hat is today an ancestor, not a derivative nor a collateral, but the founder of a line.

To my mind the name of Medicine Hat has an advantage over all the names I have quoted. It echoes, as you so justly put it, the old Cree and Blackfoot tradition of red mystery and romance that once filled the prairies; also it hints, I venture to think, at the magic that underlies the city in the shape of your natural gas.

Believe me, the very name is an asset and as years go on will become more and more of an asset. It has no duplicate in the world. It makes men ask questions and, as I knew more than twenty years ago, draws the feet of the young men to ward it.

Might Change Town's Luck.
It has the qualities of uniqueness, individuality, association and power. Above all, it is the lawful, original sweat and dust won name of the city, and to change it would be to risk the luck of the city, to disgust and dishearten old timers not in the city alone, but the world over, and to advertise abroad the city's lack of faith in itself.

Many western towns are getting tired of the old names given them by the frontiersmen, and many outsiders are afraid they will adopt new names.
Rat Portage now sounds like a sleeping car or an apartment house. Kenora is its name, to the disgust of those who would have the last great west retain the picturesque.

Moose Jaw thus far holds true to the old. So do Drinkwater, Saskatchewan, and Pinchers Creek, Alberta, and White Fish, Ontario.
